FAS COMMUNITY

I am pleased to announce that UCSF has been awarded the “Best Of” and Gold recognition for its Transportation Demand Management programs for 2010. This award is a part of the national Best Workplaces for Commuters program which recognizes organizations who have taken exemplary steps to offer alternatives for their employees driving alone and thereby reducing air pollution, traffic congestion, and fuel usage.

I would like to personally thank and congratulate our staff from Transportation Services for their efforts this past year to implement new initiatives which expand the array of alternative transportation options and advance one of our FAS strategic priorities: Create a sustainable, resource efficient environment. This is a fine example of FAS people making a difference.

You can read more about this national award on (<http://www.bestworkplaces.org/>).
