Dear FAS Community:

Given recent tragedies, including the stabbing incident at UC Merced this week, I'm writing to remind you that Campus Life Services and the UCSF Police Department have organized active shooter trainings. I encourage all FAS staff to attend one of these upcoming trainings:

- Tuesday, November 10th, 2015 from 10:00 AM to 11:30 AM at Rock Hall 102 (Mission Bay)
- Thursday, November 12th, 2015 from 9:00 AM to 10:30 AM at Toland Hall (Parnassus)

You can RSVP here: https://ucsf.co1.qualtrics.com/SE/?SID=SV\_eWKVXiL9uzhEkR

Please contact Kate Shimshock, Emergency Preparedness & Safety Administrator for Facilities Services, at kate.shimshock@ucsf.edu with any questions about these sessions.

While I hope that we will never need to use the information from these trainings, preparation is an important component of a safe and secure community. Please join me in attending one of these important sessions.

Sincerely,

Teresa Costantinidis
Interim Senior Vice Chancellor—Finance and Administration
